Imposition, Base and Rate

The gross premiums tax is imposed under the Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 682, No. 284 at the rate of 3 percent on gross premiums of insurance procured with eligible surplus lines insurers and other non-admitted insurers through duly licensed surplus lines producers. The tax is in addition to the premium charged by the insurer. The tax is levied on the insured that procured the insurance with eligible surplus lines insurers or other non-admitted insurers and is collected and remitted by the surplus lines producer. The tax on any unearned portion of the premium must be returned to the insured by the agency or agent. Political subdivisions are exempt from this tax.

Location of Risk

If the policy involves risk located in multiple states including Pennsylvania, then the taxable premiums shall be levied as follows:

If Pennsylvania is the home state of the insured, the gross premiums shall be taxable to Pennsylvania. For more information, see 40 P.S. § 991.1602, 40 P.S. § 991.1621 and 40 P.S. § 991.1622.

Revenue ID, Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN), Parent Corporation FEIN, Name and Address

This report is due on Jan. 31 for the preceding year ended Dec. 31. If Jan. 31 falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the report is due the next business day. An amended report must be filed within three years of the filed date of the original report. The department may adjust the tax originally reported based on information from the amended report. The taxpayer must consent to extend the assessment period. If the amended report is timely filed and the taxpayer consented to extend the assessment period, the time period in which to assess tax will be the greater of three years from the filed date of the original report or one year from the filed date of the amended report.

Regardless of the tax year being amended, taxpayers must use the most current non-year-specific tax form, completing all sections of the report. Paid preparers must sign and date the tax report. If the preparer is an individual without any association to a firm, provide the name, address, telephone number, email address and SSN/PTIN of the individual preparing the report.

Extension Request Due Date

To request a due date extension of up to 60 days to file the annual report, you must file an extension request (REV-426) by the original report due date. However, an extension of time to file does not extend the deadline for payment of tax, and an extension request must be accompanied by payment of taxes owed for the taxable year for which the extension is requested. Mail the extension coupon separately from all other forms. A taxpayer using an electronic method to make a payment with an extension request should not submit the extension coupon. Do not use the extension coupon to remit other unpaid liabilities or commonwealth obligations within the account.

Payment and Mailing Information

Remittance should include tax plus interest and penalty, if applicable. Penalty and interest calculators can be found at www.revenue.pa.gov. All payments of $1,000 or more must be made electronically. Failure to make a payment by an approved method will result in the imposition of a 3 percent penalty of the tax due, up to $500. For more information on electronic payment options, visit www.etides.state.pa.us. Payments under $1,000 may be remitted by mail, made payable to the PA Department of Revenue.

Refund: Identify the amount to refund from the current tax period overpayment. Prior to any refund, the department will offset current period liabilities and other unpaid liabilities or commonwealth obligations within the account.
