

January 1, 2016

<Licensee's Name>
4TH AND WALNUT ST
HARRISBURG PA 17128

RE: DOR Tracking # 3608162

Dear <Licensee's Name>:

The Pennsylvania Department of Revenue, by Executive Order 2011-06, ensures that all applicants seeking to receive or renew various state licenses, permits, and registrations are compliant with their state tax obligations.

The Revenue Department has informed the Pennsylvania Insurance Department that you are not compliant with Pennsylvania taxes. Please be advised that the Pennsylvania Insurance Department may consider appropriate enforcement action for failure to comply with state tax laws. Such action may include but is not limited to cease and desist orders, imposition of a civil penalty, and/or licensure action. Enforcement action may affect your timely receipt of your license, appointments, permit or registration.

In order to avoid enforcement action and to resolve your tax issues, please contact the Revenue Department within 20 days:

Pennsylvania Department of Revenue
Bureau of Compliance
4th and Walnut Street
Harrisburg PA 17128
Phone Number (717) 787-3911 Option 5

When contacting the Revenue Department, inform them that you have received this notification in reference to your license application or renewal.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Christopher R. Monahan".

Christopher R. Monahan
Deputy Insurance Commissioner
Office of Market Regulation
Pennsylvania Insurance Department