What’s New
Beginning with tax year 2010, the PA-41, Pennsylvania Fiduciary Income Tax Return Booklet that contained the PA-41 forms and schedules will not be printed or mailed and the booklet will no longer be available through the department’s Forms Ordering Service.

The PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, forms, schedules and instructions will be separate documents on the department’s website under Forms and Publications for personal income tax.

The 2010 tax year changes for the PA-41 include:
- PA-41 tax booklet will not be printed or mailed and will not be available through the forms ordering service.
- The PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return, Internet Version Instructions were changed to separate instructions for each individual form and schedule.
- PA-41 Schedule A/B/J has been replaced by separate schedules A, B and J.
- PA-41 Schedule DD/D has been replaced by separate schedules DD and D.
- A short-year return oval was added to PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1. Starting with tax year 2011, the estate or trust must indicate if the return is a short-year return and include a beginning and ending tax period date.
- A new schedule was added for tax year 2010. Estates and trusts must complete and file a Schedule PA-41X when amending the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. See How To Amend the PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

General Information

Purpose of Form
The fiduciary of a resident estate or trust uses the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return to report:
- the income, deductions, gains, losses, etc. of the estate or trust;
- the income that is either accumulated or held for future distribution or distributed currently to the beneficiaries; and
- any income tax liability of the estate or trust.

The fiduciary of a nonresident estate or trust uses the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return to report:
- Pennsylvania-source income when there are no resident beneficiaries;
- worldwide income when the estate or trust has Pennsylvania-source income and resident beneficiaries; or
- any income tax liability of the estate or trust.

Tax Credits
Estates and trust cannot pass through any tax credits to its beneficiaries.

Who Must File
An estate or trust must file the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return if any of the following apply:
- any estate or trust earned, received or realized more than $33 of Pennsylvania-taxable income;
- the fiduciary of a resident estate or taxable trust received taxable income during its taxable year;
- the fiduciary of a grantor trust including a Grantor Retained Annuity Trust (GRAT) or Grantor Retained Unitrust (GRUT) received taxable income during its taxable year regardless of whether it is required to file a federal income tax return or not, unless the grantor trust is a settlor-revocable trust;
- the fiduciary of a charitable trust including a Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust (CRAT) and Charitable Remainder Unitrust (CRUT) received taxable income during its taxable year, regardless of whether it is required to file a federal income tax return or not, when any private individual benefits from the earnings of the trust;
- the fiduciary of a nonresident estate or taxable trust received Pennsylvania-source income during its taxable year;
- the fiduciary of a nonresident taxable trust including grantor trusts, GRATS, GRUTS, CRATS and CRUTS received Pennsylvania-source income; or
- the fiduciary of a revocable trust that becomes an irrevocable trust (settlor of a revocable trust dies or the terms of trust are altered to make the trust irrevocable) received taxable income.

Who Does Not File a PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return
An estate or trust does not file the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return if it is one of the following:
- a charitable trust exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes;
- a revocable trust – any revocable trust (grantor or settlor-revocable);
- a nonresident estate or trust with no Pennsylvania-source income;
- a nonresident estate or trust with resident beneficiaries AND no Pennsylvania-source income;
- a funeral trust;
- a resulting or constructive trust created by operation of law;
- a trust created exclusively for the benefit of creditors;
- a principal and agent relationship;
- a business trust or real estate investment trust;
- a trust created exclusively for the benefit of employees, their families, or appointees under an employee-benefit plan;
- a pension trust or profit-sharing trust;
- a trust that is a common trust fund for federal income tax purposes; or
- a trust:
  - for which no part of the income or corpus may possibly benefit any beneficiary who is a Pennsylvania personal income tax taxpayer; and

Definitions

Charitable Trust
A charitable trust is one operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes. A trust is a charitable trust only if all of the net earnings for the taxable year and remaining life of the trust are for distribution for such purposes. No part of the earnings of a charitable trust may benefit any private individual.

Charitable Remainder Annuity Trusts (CRAT) and Charitable Remainder Unitrusts (CRUT)
Charitable Remainder Annuity Trusts (CRATS) and Charitable Remainder Unitrusts (CRUT) are types of trust where the donor retains an interest in the income from the assets contributed to the trust for which the donor received a charitable contribution deduction for federal income tax purposes.

Important. CRATs, charitable remainder trusts, CRUTs and pooled income fund trusts of public charities, are ordinary trusts that are not exempt from PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return filing requirements or taxation. These types of charitable trusts must file a Pennsylvania trust tax return, pay tax on any retained earnings, and report the income to the beneficiary on the same basis as any other ordinary trust.

Corpus
The corpus is principal or property of an estate or trust as opposed to the income it earns, receives or realizes from its corpus.
Estate
For Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes, an estate is the estate of a deceased individual.
An estate for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes does not include the estates of incompetents, bankrupts or insolvents.

Fiduciary
An individual, corporation or association holding assets in trust for another party, often with the legal authority and duty to make decisions regarding financial matters on behalf of the other party.

Funeral Trust
A funeral trust is a trust that arises from a contract with a person engaged in the business of providing funeral or burial services or property for these services, with the trust assets designated to pay the funeral expenses of the individual for whom the trust is established. The trust assets cannot be distributed until the death of that individual. Funeral trusts are revocable trusts and are not required to file a PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. However, income on the trust assets is taxed to the taxpayer who contributed the assets to the trust. See PA Personal Income Tax Guide, Chapter 14.

Governing Instrument
The governing or trust instrument is a written document that defines and describes the nature of and provides instructions for the administration and settlement of an estate or trust.
The document can be a deed of trust, will, written trust agreement, an instrument creating or exercising a reserved power of appointment or a dispositive, appointive or nominative instrument of a similar type.
The department does not require a copy of the governing instrument with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, but the estate or trust must submit it upon request.

Grantor Retained Annuity Trust (GRAT) and Grantor Retained Unitrust (GRUT)
GRATs and GRUTs are types of grantor trusts where the grantor retains an interest in receiving income assets of the trust.

Important. GRATs and GRUTs are ordinary trusts that are not exempt from PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return filing requirements or taxation. These types of trusts must file a Pennsylvania trust tax return, pay tax on any retained earnings, and report the income to the beneficiary on the same basis as any other ordinary trust.

ELECTING SMALL BUSINESS TRUST
An electing small business trust is any trust that can hold stock of an S corporation. The term means any trust if:
• generally, it does not have as a beneficiary any person other than an individual, estate or an organization described in IRC § 170(c)(2) – 170(c)(5);
• no interest in such trust was acquired by purchase; and
• an election is made by the trustee applicable to the trust.

Grantor Trust
A trust in which some or all of the assets are considered to be owned by the grantor for federal income tax purposes.
However, Pennsylvania law varies from federal law regarding grantor trusts and federal rules do not apply for Pennsylvania fiduciary income tax purposes. Pennsylvania law imposes the fiduciary income tax on grantor trusts according to the same Pennsylvania personal income tax rules that apply to irrevocable trusts, unless the grantor trust is a revocable trust. See Revocable Trust.
The beneficiaries of the trust are taxed on income required to be distributed currently or actually distributed or credited to them. The grantor trust is taxable on the remainder.

Irrevocable Trust
An irrevocable trust is a trust that cannot be modified, amended, changed or terminated by the grantor.

Nonresident Estate or Trust
A nonresident estate or trust is any estate or trust from which a beneficiary is a nonresident of Pennsylvania.
Pennsylvania law imposes the fiduciary income tax on the income of a nonresident estate or trust from Pennsylvania sources. A nonresident estate or trust must ignore items of income, loss, cost, expense and liability that are not directly related to Pennsylvania when calculating its Pennsylvania-taxable income.
An inter vivos trust created by a resident can become a nonresident trust if all of the following conditions are met.

The assets of the trust currently consist in no part of:
• real property or tangible personal property located within Pennsylvania;
• stock, securities or intangible personal property, evidenced by the documents, certificates or other instruments that are physically located, or have a business situs, within Pennsylvania;
• the trust is taxable as a resident elsewhere for the period in question;
• the trust has no resident fiduciary, beneficiary or remainderman;
• all administration, accounting, bookkeeping, sales and purchases currently take place outside Pennsylvania;
• the settlor is no longer a resident of Pennsylvania or died a nonresident of Pennsylvania;
• the settlor is not a resident at the times when during his or her lifetime:
  • an application is made to a court concerning the trust; or
  • he, she, or another might have exercised a reserved power of revocation; and
• both of the following apply:
  • a Pennsylvania court having jurisdiction over the trust has directed that the situs of the trust be changed to a place outside Pennsylvania; and
  • the courts of such place have assumed jurisdiction to
    • adjudicate disputes involving the trust; or
    • order accountings to protect the trust corpus, beneficiaries and remaindemen.

Resident Estate or Trust
A resident estate is the estate created by an individual who at the time of his or her death was a Pennsylvania resident.
A resident trust is any of the following:
• a trust created by the will of a decedent who, at the time of death, was a Pennsylvania resident individual;
• a trust consisting of property transferred to it or another trust by a settlor or other individual, estate or trust that at the time of such transfer, was a Pennsylvania resident; or
• a trust of a person who, at the time of such creation, was a Pennsylvania resident.

Revocable Trust
A revocable trust is one that can be created by anyone, and at a later date, be dissolved by the person who Pennsylvania Income Taxation of Trusts and Estates

Taxable Income

Estates or trusts must report taxable income (loss) realized from the following classes:
- interest income;
- dividend income;
- net income (loss) from the operation of a business, profession or farm;
- net gain (loss) from the sale, exchange or disposition of property;
- net income (loss) from rents, royalties, patents or copyrights;
- estate or trust income; and
- gambling and lottery winnings.

TIP Compensation from a deceased individual’s final W-2 cannot be reported on a PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. This income should be reported on the individual’s final PA-40, Individual Income Tax Return.

If any of the compensation is paid after an individual’s death, an explanation must accompany the individual’s final return advising that the income was income in respect of a decedent and, therefore, is not subject to Pennsylvania personal income tax. However, any Pennsylvania income tax withheld should be included on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, Line 15. See Line 15 in these instructions.

Any compensation paid after the individual’s death, plus any tax refund, must be included as assets of the decedent’s estate, and as such, are subject to inheritance tax.

Costs and Expenses

A fiduciary may not deduct:
- expenses and fees related to administering the estate or trust;
- costs and expenses attributable to earning or receiving interest and dividend income or managing securities holdings of the estate or trust;
- costs and expenses attributable to receiving income from other estates or trusts;
- inheritance, succession, estate, gift taxes, or taxes based on income;
- funeral expenses;
- expenses for preservation or maintenance of non-income producing property; and
- expenses related to exempt income; or
- satisfaction of personal debts of the decedent.

A fiduciary may deduct only the ordinary, necessary and reasonable costs and expenses directly incurred in realizing income (loss) from:
- the operation of a business or farm;
- the sale, exchange, or other disposition of property; and
- the receipt of rental or royalty income.

Gains or Losses

Estates or trusts cannot offset income in one Pennsylvania income class with a loss in any other Pennsylvania income class.

Estates or trusts cannot carry forward income or losses back or forward to other tax years. Include the appropriate completed schedule for the income, gain (loss) reported.

TIP If the estate or trust realized a net loss in an income class, enter the amount of the loss on the appropriate line of the PA-41. If a negative amount, fill in the “loss” oval.

Income Required to be Distributed Currently

Income required to be distributed currently is income for the taxable year that the fiduciary is under a duty to distribute. The determination of whether trust income is required to be distributed currently depends upon the terms of the trust instrument and the applicable local law. Income required to be distributed currently is taxable as such even if, as a matter of practical necessity, it is not actually distributed until after the close of the trust’s taxable year.

It is immaterial, for purposes of determining whether income is required to be distributed currently, that the amount of income allocated to a particular beneficiary is not specified in the instrument. For example, if the fiduciary is required to distribute all the income currently, but has discretion to sprinkle or spray the income among a class of beneficiaries, or among named beneficiaries, in such amount as he/she may see fit, all the income is required to be distributed currently, even though the amount distributable to a particular beneficiary is unknown until the fiduciary has exercised his/her discretion.

Estate, Trusts and Beneficiaries

The taxable income of an estate or taxable trust is the current income that it retains for future distribution or disbursement or currently applies to discharge, satisfy or reduce any person’s or its own obligations. Each estate or taxable trust must classify and report all income, gains and losses realized in the appropriate Pennsylvania income classes.

The estate or trust must also submit PA-41 Schedules RK-1 for resident individual beneficiaries and PA-41 Schedules NRK-1 for nonresident individual beneficiaries with the estate or trust’s PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

If the beneficiary is an entity such as a partnership, PA S corporation, estate or trust, the estate or trust completing the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, must provide the entity with both a PA-41 Schedule RK-1 and NRK-1 showing the entity beneficiary’s share of taxable income.

The PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 show all of the distributions to each of its beneficiaries. The estate or trust must provide each beneficiary with a personalized PA-41 Schedule RK-1 and/or NRK-1, showing that beneficiary’s share of its 2011 Pennsylvania-taxable income.

A taxable trust (and its beneficiaries) and an estate (and its beneficiaries) are not subject to tax on income that is set aside exclusively for charitable purposes. See Charitable Trust.

Owners of Partnerships and PA S Corporations

If the estate or trust is an owner of a partnership or a PA S corporation, the estate or trust must report its share of the income (loss), whether distributed or not, in the same class in which the partnership or PA S corporation reported the income.

Each resident estate or trust must submit the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 and each nonresident estate or trust must submit the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 received from the partnership or PA S corporation.

Resident Estates or Trusts

Pennsylvania taxes the income of a resident estate or trust from sources both inside and outside Pennsylvania.

A resident estate or trust may claim a resident credit if it is subject to and pays income tax to another state or country on income that is also taxable to Pennsylvania during the same taxable year. This credit is nonrefundable, cannot exceed the amount of the total Pennsylvania tax liability of the estate or trust and may not be passed through to a beneficiary.

To claim a resident credit, the estate or trust must submit a completed PA-40 Schedule G-S or G-L.

Resident Beneficiary

The taxable income of a resident beneficiary from a resident or nonresident estate or trust is the taxable income, regardless of source, received by the estate or trust for the taxable year that:
- is required to be distributed currently to the beneficiary, or
- is credited or distributed to the beneficiary.

Nonresident Beneficiary

The taxable income of a nonresident beneficiary from a resident or nonresident estate or taxable trust is the taxable income from Pennsylvania sources received by the estate or trust for its taxable year that the estate or trust distributed, was required to distribute currently or was credited to the beneficiary.

Privacy Notification

By law (42 U.S.C. §405(c)(2)(C)(i); 61 Pa. Code §117.16), the department has the authority to use the Social Security number (SSN) to administer the Pennsylvania personal income tax and other Commonwealth of Pennsylvania tax laws.

The department uses the SSN to identify individual taxpayers and verify their incomes. The department also uses the SSN to administer a number of tax-offset and child-support programs that both federal and Pennsylvania laws require.

The Commonwealth may also use the SSN in exchange-of-tax information agreements with governmental authorities. Except for official purposes, Pennsylvania law prohibits the Commonwealth from disclosing information that individuals provide on income tax returns, including the SSN(s).

What To File

See the PA-41 individual schedules and instructions to determine what to include with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income tax Return. Also refer to Assembling the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Income Tax Return of an Estate or Trust

An executor or administrator must file a PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, if he or she is a fiduciary of:
- a resident estate or trust that received taxable income during its taxable year; or
- a nonresident estate or trust that received taxable income allocable to Pennsylvania during its taxable year.

If the department requests, the fiduciary of an estate or trust must file a copy of the will or trust instrument (including amendments), a written declaration under the penalties of perjury that the instrument is a true and complete copy, and a statement indicating which provisions, in the fiduciary’s opinion, determine the extent of taxable income to the estate or trust or the beneficiaries.

Resident Estates or Trusts as Owners in Partnerships

Pennsylvania taxes the income of a resident estate or trust from sources both inside and outside of Pennsylvania including income not distributed to the beneficiaries. If the estate or trust distributes the income to its beneficiaries, it is taxable to the beneficiaries and not the estate or trust.

If the resident estate or trust is an owner in a partnership, or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, the estate or trust should receive a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 and a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 from the partnership.

Although a resident estate or trust receives both the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 and Schedules NRK-1 from the partnership, a resident estate or trust must only submit a copy of the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 from each partnership and report its share of income whether distributed or not as shown on their PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 from the partnership.

A PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 is also required to report Pennsylvania-source income necessary to calculate... the amounts for PA-41 Schedule DD for nonresident beneficiaries. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

The copy of the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 is not required to be included with a resident estate or trust tax return. However, the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 is required to be included with a nonresident estate or trust tax return. See Nonresident Estates or Trusts as Owners in PA S Corporations.

If the estate or trust receives only a federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1, the estate or trust must obtain a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 from the entity. The department will only permit the estate or trust to adjust and reclassify the income from the federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1 according to Pennsylvania rules in limited circumstances. See the PA PIT Guide, Chapter 16, Pass Through Entities, for additional information on the adjustments required and the proper classification of income.

Nonresident Estates or Trusts as Owners in Partnerships
Pennsylvania law imposes fiduciary income tax on the income of a nonresident estate or trust from Pennsylvania sources. A nonresident estate or trust must ignore items of income (loss), cost, expense and liability that are not directly related to Pennsylvania when calculating its Pennsylvania-taxable income.

If the nonresident estate or trust is an owner in a partnership, the partnership must provide the nonresident estate or trust a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 and a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 from each Pennsylvania entity. If the partnership or entity formed after the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 are not available, the nonresident estate or trust must obtain a copy of the federal Schedule K-1 and the income (loss) is being reported to Pennsylvania from a federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1 explaining how the amount reported was determined.

If a nonresident estate or trust does not have resident beneficiaries, the nonresident estate or trust reports Pennsylvania-source income in the appropriate classes on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

If a nonresident estate or trust reports worldwide income in the appropriate classes on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Example. When a nonresident estate or trust receives income from a partnership, the nonresident estate or trust must file a copy of the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 and NRK-1 it received from the partnership along with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Each nonresident estate or trust, as an owner in a partnership, must submit with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return:

- a complete copy of its federal income tax return including all schedules, statements, federal schedules K-1;
- a copy of PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 that provides to its resident beneficiaries;
- a copy of PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 that provides to its nonresident beneficiaries;
- the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 that the nonresident estate or trust received from other entities, whether the income was distributed or not.

If the partnership or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes has Pennsylvania-source income but does not provide to the nonresident estate or trust a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 and RK-1, the nonresident estate or trust must report and classify the income (loss) from federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1 according to the instructions for each Pennsylvania income class.

The nonresident estate or trust, as an owner in a partnership, must then submit a copy of its federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1 and related supporting schedules where applicable that provide information as to the classification of the income from the federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1.
Pennsylvania when calculating its Pennsylvania-taxable income.

If the nonresident estate or trust is an owner in a PA S corporation, the PA S corporation must provide the nonresident estate or trust a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 and RK-1 showing the nonresident estate or trust’s share of Pennsylvania-taxable income (loss) whether distributed or not. The federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1 is not an acceptable substitute.

When the nonresident estate or trust, as an owner in a PA S corporation, received a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 and NRK-1 from another entity, it has the classified income (loss) amount to complete the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. The nonresident estate or trust, as an owner in a PA S corporation, is required to file both the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 and NRK-1 with their PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Example. When a nonresident estate or trust receives income from a PA S corporation, the nonresident estate or trust must file a copy of the PA S corporation’s Form 1120S Schedule K-1 and NRK-1 it received from the PA S corporation along with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Each nonresident estate or trust, as an owner in a PA S corporation, must submit with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return:

- a complete copy of its federal income tax return including all schedules, statements, federal schedules K-1;
- a copy of PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 that it provides to its resident beneficiaries;
- a copy of PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 that it provides to its nonresident beneficiaries; and
- the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 that the nonresident estate or trust received from other entities, whether the income was distributed or not.

If the PA S corporation or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a PA S corporation for federal income tax purposes has Pennsylvania-source income but does not provide to the nonresident estate or trust a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 and RK-1, the nonresident estate or trust still must report and classify the income (loss) from federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1 according to the instructions for each Pennsylvania income class.

If the nonresident estate or trust receives only a federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1, the nonresident estate or trust must obtain a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 from the entity. The department will only permit the nonresident estate or trust to adjust and reclassify the income from the federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1 according to Pennsylvania rules in limited circumstances. See the PA PIT Guide, Chapter 16, Pass Through Entities, for additional information on the adjustments required and the proper classification of income.

If a nonresident estate or trust does not have resident beneficiaries, the nonresident estate or trust reports Pennsylvania-source income in the appropriate classes on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

If a nonresident estate or trust has resident beneficiaries, the nonresident estate or trust reports worldwide income in the appropriate classes on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Nonresident Estates or Trusts with Resident Beneficiaries
A nonresident estate or trust with resident beneficiaries that is an owner in a PA S corporation, partnership or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a partnership or PA S corporation for federal income tax purposes must submit a copy of each PA-20S/PA65 Schedules RK-1 and PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 that it receives from each entity. If a nonresident estate or trust has resident beneficiaries, the nonresident estate or trust reports worldwide income in the appropriate classes on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

The nonresident estate or trust must report its worldwide income and calculate the amounts for PA-41 Schedule DD. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

Nonresident Estates or Trusts with Nonresident Beneficiaries
A nonresident estate or trust with no resident beneficiaries that is an owner in a PA S corporation, partnership or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a partnership or PA S corporation for federal income tax purposes must only submit a copy of the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 that it receives from each entity. If a nonresident estate or trust does not have resident beneficiaries, the nonresident estate or trust must only report Pennsylvania-source income in the appropriate classes on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. The nonresident estate or trust must report its Pennsylvania-source income and calculate the amounts for PA-41 Schedule DD, Column B. The nonresident estate or trust must report its worldwide income and calculate the amounts for PA-41 Schedule DD. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

Pennsylvania Resident Estates or Trusts as Beneficiaries of Pennsylvania Estates or Trusts
If the estate or trust is a beneficiary of a Pennsylvania estate or trust, the estate or trust beneficiary should receive a PA-41 Schedule RK-1 and PA-41 Schedule NRK-1 from the Pennsylvania estate or trust entity.

A PA-41 Schedule RK-1 reports worldwide income necessary to calculate the amounts for PA-41 Schedule DD. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

As a resident beneficiary of a resident estate or trust, the resident estate or trust reports the income from the Pennsylvania estate or trust reports the income from the PA-41 Schedule RK-1, Line 6 on PA-41 Schedule J and on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, Line 6.

A PA-41 Schedule NRK-1 reports the Pennsylvania-source income to calculate amounts for Column b on PA-41 Schedule DD when there are nonresident beneficiaries. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website. If there are no nonresident beneficiaries, the PA-41 Schedule NRK-1 is not used by estates or trusts.

Important. An estate or trust as a beneficiary should receive PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1, if it has income from a resident estate or trust. It is important to remember that the PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 submitted to the resident beneficiary should reflect the taxable income to Pennsylvania residents even if the estate or trust is a nonresident.

If the estate or trust beneficiary does not receive a PA-41 Schedule RK-1 or NRK-1, the estate or trust beneficiary must report and include the income from federal Form 1041 Schedule K-1 as a single class - estate or trust income.

If the estate or trust beneficiary receives a PA-41 Schedule RK-1 or NRK-1, a copy of that document is not required to be submitted with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.
However, if the PA-41 Schedules RK-1 or NRK-1 are not received, a copy of the federal Form 1041 Schedule K-1 is required to be submitted with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Pennsylvania Resident Estates or Trusts as Beneficiaries of Nonresident Estates or Trusts

If the Pennsylvania estate or trust is a beneficiary of a nonresident estate or trust, the nonresident estate or trust may provide the Pennsylvania estate or trust beneficiary with a PA-41 Schedule RK-1 and NRK-1 showing the estate or trust’s share of Pennsylvania-taxable income (loss) whether distributed or not if the estate or trust is required to file the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. See Who Must File and Who Does Not File.

If the nonresident estate or trust does not provide to the Pennsylvania estate or trust a PA-41 Schedule NRK-1 and RK-1, the Pennsylvania estate or trust still must include and report the income from federal Form 1041 Schedule K-1 as a single class-estate or trust income.

A PA-41 Schedule RK-1 reports worldwide income necessary to calculate the amounts for PA-41 Schedule DD. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

As a resident beneficiary of a nonresident estate or trust, the resident estate or trust reports the income from the PA-41 Schedule RK-1, Line 6 on PA-41 Schedule J and on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, Line 6.

A PA-41 Schedule NRK-1 reports the Pennsylvania-source income to calculate amounts for Column b on PA-41 Schedule DD when there are nonresident beneficiaries. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website. If there are no nonresident beneficiaries, the PA-41 Schedule NRK-1 is not used by estates or trusts.

PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1

These schedules show the share of income (loss) for each Pennsylvania income class from PA S corporations, partnerships and entities formed as limited liability companies that are classified as partnerships or PA S corporations for federal income tax purposes.

If the estate or trust received any guaranteed payments from a partnership or limited liability company, add those payments to the estate or trust’s share of income (loss) as shown on the Pennsylvania schedules.

The PA S corporation, partnership or limited liability company deducts all allowable expenses and other allowable adjustments.

An estate or trust may not deduct additional expenses incurred on behalf of the PA S corporation, partnership or limited liability company that it may be able to deduct for federal purposes.

Assembling the PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return

Assemble the PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return, forms and schedules in the following order:

- signed original PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return (Pages 1 and 2). Do not mail a photocopy;
- a copy of the federal extension or statement showing the electronically filed extension confirmation number if REV-276 is not required to be filed;
- copies of federal Forms 1099, W-2, or other documents showing Pennsylvania tax withheld;
- copies of any completed Pennsylvania schedules in alphabetical order;
- copies of all statements providing listings for or additional explanations of the income (loss) on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return or its schedules in the order of presentation on the PA-41 or in relation to the appropriate schedule;
- copies of all PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1, PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1, and federal Form 1065 Schedules K-1 or federal Form 1120S Schedules K-1 for income (loss) reported from partnerships or S corporations;
- copies of any federal Form 1041 Schedules K-1 for income received from other estates or trusts if no PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 are received;
- copies of Pages 1 and 2 of the federal Form 1041 for the estate or trust;
- copies of the PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 for each beneficiary of the estate or trust; and
- copies of any PA Schedule G-S and G-L completed on behalf of the estate or trust.

Assemble documents in the order above.

Do not staple documents.

On any additional statements you include with your return, please include the estate or trust’s name, FEIN, tax year, and a brief line reference to PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return or PA-41 schedules.

Important. Do not create a substitute PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return that has not been approved by the department. A spreadsheet is an unapproved and unacceptable tax form. Unapproved tax forms filed with the department may be rejected and returned to the taxpayer or tax return preparer. This may result in an assessment of interest and penalty.

If you are filing any tax form other than an official tax form, please read Miscellaneous Tax Bulletin 2008-02 available on the department’s website.

Estimated Fiduciary Income Tax Payments

If the estate or trust expects more than $8,000 of Pennsylvania-taxable income in 2012, the fiduciary must file a PA-40 ESR F/C, Declaration of Estimated Tax and make installment payments.

Estates and trusts follow federal annualization of income rules to determine the amount of quarterly estimated payments due.

Use the following forms to determine the amount of quarterly estimated payment due:

- REV-413(F), Instructions for Estimating PA Fiduciary Income Tax (Estates and Trusts);
- REV-414(F), Estimated Tax Worksheet (Estates and Trusts); and
- REV-1630F, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Fiduciaries.

These forms are available on the department’s website for downloading. See the Forms and Publications tab in the center of the department’s website.

Forms and schedules can also be obtained through one of the Forms Ordering Services. See Forms and Publications in the left navigation menu on the department’s website or refer to Taxpayer Services at the end of these instructions.

Penalty and Interest

The department will bill you for any penalty and interest that you owe.

Calculate penalty and interest by visiting the Revenue e-Services Center on the department’s website.
Estimated Underpayment Penalty

The estate or trust is subject to this penalty if:
- it owes more than $246 on its return (3.07 percent on $8,000 of Pennsylvania-taxable income); and
- the estate or trust made estimated payments, but did not meet one of the exceptions described below.

The department will not impose this penalty on an estate or trust when:
- its total timely estimated payments and credits are at least 90 percent of the tax due as shown on its 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return;
- its total timely estimated payments and credits are at least equal to an amount calculated using the current year's tax rate and the income on its prior year's PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return;
- for each installment period, its timely estimated payment is at least 90 percent of the actual tax due on the income earned or received for each installment period; or
- this is the first or second year the estate or trust receiving the residue of a probate estate is required to file a PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

The fiduciary may calculate and pay this penalty on REV-1630F, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Fiduciaries, submitted with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

The department will send a notice to the estate or trust if it owes this penalty. A fiduciary who disagrees with the department's notice should submit REV-1630F to support the calculations for the estate or trust or to claim an exception.

Interest for Nonpayment or Late Payment of Tax

If the estate or trust does not pay its tax by the due date, the department imposes interest from the due date to the date of payment. The annual interest rate is the rate established by the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury that is in effect on Jan. 1 of each calendar year.

Penalties for Not Filing or Filing a Late Return

If the estate or trust does not file its PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return timely, Pennsylvania law imposes a penalty, unless the estate or trust can show reasonable cause for late filing.

The penalty is 5 percent of the tax due for each month or fraction of a month that the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return is late. The maximum penalty is 25 percent.

The minimum penalty is $5. Any estate or trust that attempts to evade or defeat their Pennsylvania fiduciary income tax responsibility is subject to prosecution.

Penalty for Uncollectible Funds

Pennsylvania tax law imposes an additional penalty on funds submitted via check and not paid on presentment (bad checks). The penalty is 10 percent of the face amount of the check. The penalty imposed cannot exceed $1,000 nor be less than $25.

Other Penalties

Pennsylvania law also imposes:
- a 5 percent underpayment penalty if the estate or trust does not pay the full amount of its tax due by the original due date; and
- an additional penalty of 25 percent of the tax due on the unreported income, if the estate or trust does not report an amount of taxable income that is more than 25 percent of the taxable income that it reported on its PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Important. The department may assess both late filing and underpayment penalties if the fiduciary files the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return after the due date, or extended due date, and does not pay the tax due by the original due date.

Pennsylvania law also may impose:
- an additional 50 percent penalty on the underpayment of the tax due if any part of the underpayment is due to fraud;
- a $500 penalty if the estate or trust:
  > files a return that contains information that indicates the liability is significantly incorrect.
  > files a return frivolously, or in a manner to delay or impede the administration of the tax law.
  > a penalty of $250 for each instance when any person required to furnish an information return either furnishes a false or fraudulent return, or fails to furnish an information return.

Abatement of Penalties

Penalties may be abated only if the estate or trust can show reasonable cause for abatement in its petition for reassessment of the penalty. To be timely, the petition must be filed with the department's Board of Appeals within 90 days of the mailing date of the assessment of the penalty.

When To File

If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or business holiday, the estate or trust must file its PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return no later than midnight on the first business day following the Saturday, Sunday or business holiday.

File your 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return on or before April 17, 2012 including an extension date of Sept. 15, 2012. The U.S Postal Service postmark date on your envelope is proof of timely filing. Pennsylvania follows the same tax year as federal rules.

If you cannot file by the original due date, request an extension of time to file. See Extension of Time To File.

If you do not file your return by the original due date or extended due date and do not pay the tax due by the original due date, the department imposes late filing and underpayment penalties.

Calendar-Year Estate or Trust

An estate or trust that files a return on a calendar year basis, reports all taxable income recognized between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31.

File your 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return on or before April 17, 2012 including an extension date of Sept. 15, 2012.

If you cannot file by the original due date, request an extension of time to file. See Extension of Time To File.

If you do not file your return by the original due date or extended due date and do not pay the tax due by the original due date, the department imposes late filing and underpayment penalties.

Fiscal-Year Estate or Trust

A fiscal year is a period of 12 consecutive months without regard to the calendar year. The fiscal year is designated by the calendar year in which it ends.

A fiscal-year estate or trust reports all taxable income recognized during the fiscal year. An estate or trust that files on a fiscal year reports all gross taxable income (loss) allocable or apportionable to Pennsylvania, regardless of the amount of its income (loss) and/or whether or not the income was distributed.
File your 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year including an extension date of five months after the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or business holiday, file on the next business day.

If you cannot file by the due date, request an extension of time to file. See Extension of Time To File.

If you do not file your return by the due date or extended due date and do not pay the tax due by the original due date, the department imposes late filing and underpayment penalties.

Important. If an estate or trust is a fiscal-year filer and the initial return is for a short-year period, where the beginning date of the short-year is in the same calendar year as the end date of the short-year return, the estate or trust must use the prior calendar year forms. Do not use the calendar year forms related to the beginning date of the short-year return. This will delay processing of your return. See Short-Year Return.

Changing From a Fiscal-Year Estate or Trust to a Calendar-Year Estate or Trust
To change from a fiscal-year filer to a calendar-year filer, the entity files a short-year return. See Short-Year Return.

The entity then files the next calendar year on or before April 15, unless an extension of time to file has been granted. See Fiscal-Year Estate or Trust. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or business holiday, file on the next business day.

The entity is also required to submit a copy of its federal election Form 1128, Application to Adopt, Change or Retain a Tax Year, with both the short-year return and the calendar-year return.

If you cannot file by the due date, request an extension of time to file. See Extension of Time To File.

If you do not file your return by the due date or extended due date and do not pay the tax due by the original due date, the department imposes late filing and underpayment penalties.

Short-Year Return
A short year is an accounting period shorter than one year and not a 52-53 week taxable year.

A short-year return is required for the following reasons:

- changes in the annual accounting period, for example, the entity changes from a fiscal-year filer to a calendar-year filer;
- an entity is in existence during only part of the tax year. For example, if the year is the initial.

When there has been a change in an accounting period that requires filing of a short-year return, the tax is calculated on an annualized basis.

File your 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year including an extension date of five months after the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or business holiday, file on the next business day.

If you cannot file by the due date, request an extension of time to file. See Extension of Time To File.

If you do not file your return by the due date or extended due date and do not pay the tax due by the original due date, the department imposes late filing and underpayment penalties.

How to File a PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Short-Year Return
If an estate or trust is required to file a short-year return, the entity must use the most recent PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, schedules and forms on the department’s website. If the tax year on the forms is not the current tax year and/or the tax year for which the entity is filing, then the entity must cross out and write the correct tax year for which it is filing a short-year return.

Since a short-year is a fiscal-year return, the due date is on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year including an extension date of five months after the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

If you do not file your return by the due date or extended due date and do not pay the tax due by the original due date, the department imposes late filing and underpayment penalties.

TIP
If the entity is a calendar-year filer and files a short-year return, do not fill in the fiscal-year oval on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Extension of Time To File
The department will not grant an extension for more than five months, except for taxpayers outside the U.S. An extension of time to file does not extend the payment deadline.

Follow these procedures when applying for an extension of time to file:

1. If you owe income tax on your PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, you must pay by check with a timely filed REV-276, Application for Extension of Time to File. The department will not send a letter granting the extension, but it will write if there is a question concerning the request.

2. If you requested an extension to file your federal income tax return and you do not owe Pennsylvania income tax on your 2011 tax return, the department will grant you the same extension to file your PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. You do not have to submit REV-276 or federal Form 7004 before the due date.

3. If you do not have an extension to file your federal income tax return, request an extension on REV-276, and file it in sufficient time for the department to consider and act upon it prior to the return due date.

Mail REV-276, with or without a payment, to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
PO BOX 280504
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0504

Tip
If you pay by credit card or ACH debit on or before April 17, you can get an automatic 5-month extension without mailing a REV-276. On the Internet, go to www.revenue.state.pa.us and link to the E-Services Center.

How To File the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return with an Extension
When filing your PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return with an extension:

- Fill in the extension request oval at the top of your PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.
- If you did not file REV-276, submit a copy of federal Form 7004 with your PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.
- If you electronically filed your federal extension, submit a statement with an explanation and the confirmation number you received.
How to Pay

Payment by Paper Check

Use the 2011 PA-41 Payment Voucher (PA-V) with your payment if you owe tax with your 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. Do not use this voucher for any other purpose.

When filing the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return print the correct information on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return and submit a check or money order along with the PA-V made payable to the PA Dept. of Revenue in the same envelope with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Do not staple check or money order to your return or the PA-V. Place your PA-V and check or money order in the envelope with your PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. Do not send cash. See Where to File.

The estate or trust must pay the balance of tax due shown on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return by April 17, 2012. Fiscal-year filers must pay by the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year; or the estate or trust does not pay the remaining tax with a timely filed PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

The department will charge interest on the amount not paid by the due date of the return.

Extension Due Dates

For a calendar-year filer, the extension due date for the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return is on or before Sept. 15.

For a fiscal-year filer, the extension due date for the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return is five months after the original due date.

Where To File

If there is tax due on Line 18 of the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, mail the return and check to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF IMAGING AND DOCUMENT MANAGEMENT
PO BOX 280413
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0413

If there is an overpayment on Line 21 of the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, mail the return to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
PO BOX 280505
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0505

If there is no tax due or overpayment, mail the return to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
PO BOX 280506
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0506

Payment By Electronic Funds Transfer
You may also pay your 2011 PA tax due using electronic funds transfer by accessing the Revenue e-Services Center at www.revenue.state.pa.us. You will be prompted for your bank account information and the payment will be deducted from your account on the date you specify. There is no charge for using this option.

How To Amend the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return
If after filing the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, an estate or trust discovers that an incorrect return has been submitted to the department and/or federal Form 1041 has been amended or if the Internal Revenue Service changes or corrects any item of income, gain (loss) previously reported, the estate or trust must submit an amended PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return within 30 days to the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue.

To amend your original PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return use a PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return and for tax year 2011 a Schedule PA-41X for the tax year that is to be amended and fill in the “Amended PA-41” oval at the top of the tax return. If you are amending a 2010 or earlier tax year return, you must obtain a PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return booklet for the year you want to amend and use the amended return instructions included therein.

To file an amended return on a 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, complete the following steps:

1. Complete Schedule PA-41X.
2. Enter the amended amounts from Schedule PA-41X per the PA-41X instructions.
3. Calculate Line 8, Deductions from PA Schedule DD, distributed to each beneficiary and complete amended PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and/or NRK-1.
4. Calculate Line 9, Net PA-Taxable Income.
5. Calculate Line 10, Total PA Tax Liability.
7. Calculate Line 18, Tax Due.

8. Complete Line 19 to report any adjusted penalty and interest to be included on the return.
9. Do not complete Lines 20 and 21. The department’s tax system is programmed to properly calculate your amended total payment or overpayment.
10. Complete Lines 22 and 23 to notify the department how to disperse your overpayment.

The department will take the original refund or payment into account when reviewing the amended PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Be sure to sign the amended return and mail the amended return with all explanations and attachments. See Where To File.

Important. Do not file an amended PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return after the department issues an assessment if the amendment relates to the same taxable year and assessed item of income, gain, deduction or loss.

In this instance, either file a timely petition for reassessment or pay the assessment and file a timely petition for a refund via the Revenue e-Services Center. Taxpayers may also obtain REV-65, Board of Appeals Petition Form on the department’s website.

Recordkeeping
All amounts reported on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return and accompanying schedules are subject to verification and audit by the department. The fiduciary must retain books and records for at least four years after filing to verify any information reported on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Information that substantiates the calculation of the estate or trust’s basis in any investment (partnership, S corporation, stocks, bonds, real estate, etc.) must be retained indefinitely or for at least four years after the investment is sold. Information that substantiates the calculation of basis in an investment shall include, but not be limited to, broker statements, Pennsylvania and other states’ income tax returns, PA Schedules RK-1, closing statements, etc.

Completing the PA-41

Federal Employer Identification Number
Enter the 9-digit federal employer identification number (FEIN) of the estate or trust.

An estate with a FEIN should leave the field blank for decedent’s Social Security number.
If an estate has not yet received its FEIN from the IRS, the preparer should provide the decedent’s Social Security number in this field.

If a trust has not yet received its FEIN from the IRS, the preparer should write “APPLIEDFR” in the space provided for the FEIN.

The estate or trust should then send the department a copy of the notice identifying the assigned FEIN as soon as it is received from the IRS.

The copy of the notice should be sent to the same address to which any previous returns or extensions were filed.

Decedent’s Social Security Number
Enter the 9-digit Social Security number of the decedent.

Fiduciary’s Daytime Phone Number
Enter the fiduciary’s daytime phone number.

Name of Estate Or Trust
Print the name of the estate or trust in the following format:

Estate
Enter taxpayer’s last name, first name and middle initial.

Example
SMITH JOHN T ESTATE OF

Trust
Enter taxpayer’s last name, first name and middle initial.

Example
JONES MARY S TRUST

Name and Title of Fiduciary
Print the name and title of the fiduciary.

Address of Fiduciary
Enter the fiduciary’s complete street address. If the address has an apartment number, suite, or RR number, enter after the street address. Eliminate all punctuation such as apostrophes, commas, periods and hyphens.

City or Post Office, State and ZIP Code
Enter the appropriate information in each box. Eliminate all punctuation such as apostrophes, commas, periods and hyphens.

For a foreign address, the bottom line of the address should show only the country name, written in full (no abbreviations) and in capital letters. See Foreign Address Instructions.

Fill In the Applicable Ovals

Estate or Trust Identification Change
Fill in the oval if any of the identification or filing information entered is different from the last filed return or if the estate or trust did not file a 2010 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Extension Requested
Fill in the oval if the estate or trust requested an extension of time to file the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. If the entity did not file REV-276, Application for Extension of Time to File, submit a copy of federal Form 7004, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File Certain Business Income Tax, Information, and Other Returns, with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. See Extension of Time To File.

Amended PA-41
Fill in the oval if amending the 2011 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. The estate or trust must also provide amended PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 to its beneficiaries. See How To Amend the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Fiscal Year
A fiscal year is a 12-month accounting period, other than a calendar year, ending on the last day of a particular month, for example July 1 to June 20 of the following year. Numerous taxpayers are free to select a fiscal year in which to report taxable income.

The estate or trust must use its federal taxable year for Pennsylvania purposes.

If the estate or trust does not file on a calendar-year basis, fill in the oval. Enter the month, day and year when the fiscal year begins and ends.

Note. A fiscal-year basis includes anything other than tax year beginning Jan. 1 and ending Dec. 31.

TIP. Do not fill in the fiscal-year oval for a calendar-year filer whose initial year does not begin Jan. 1 or for a calendar-year filer whose final return does not end Dec. 31.
Residency Status
Fill in only one oval.

Final Return
Fill in the oval and enter the date the estate was closed or the trust terminated during its taxable year.

Line Instructions

Line 1
Interest Income and Gambling and Lottery Winnings
You must complete PA-41 Schedule A if the amount of interest income reported on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return is greater than $2,500.

If you are required to complete PA-41 Schedule A, please include the amount from Line 6 of PA-41 Schedule A on Line 1 of the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

If you are not required to complete PA-41 Schedule A, record the total amount of interest income earned for the year on Line 1 of the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Report interest received during the taxable year from bank deposits, bonds, certificates of deposit, interest-bearing checking accounts, tax refunds, other obligations, etc. See PA-41 Schedule A instructions on the department’s website.

Caution. Report dividends paid by savings and loan associations, mutual savings banks, cooperative banks and credit unions on deposits or withdrawals from accounts, as interest.

Also, include in interest income any interest from an installment sale that Pennsylvania law does not permit, such as an installment sale of intangible property.

Generally, federal Form 1099 issued by a financial institution will indicate the amount of interest from such institutions. Interest from GNMA and FNMA certificates is Pennsylvania-taxable income.

Interest received from obligations of other states and countries is Pennsylvania-taxable income.

Also, include interest from PA-20S/PA65 Schedules RK-1. If the estate or trust received only a federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1 or federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1, classify interest income according to Pennsylvania rules.

Pennsylvania Tax-Exempt Interest
Do not report interest received from direct obligations of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or its political subdivisions.

Do not report interest from direct obligations of the U.S., such as Series E, F, G, H, I, and EE bonds, federal treasury bills and notes, etc. Interest received from obligations of federal instrumentalities is not taxable.

For a list of exempt obligations, request REV-1643, Tax-Exempt Obligations for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes.

Distributions from Money Market Funds, Mutual Funds and Other Investment Companies
Estates or trusts must report distributions from the earnings and profits of money market or mutual funds, investment trusts and investment companies as dividend income on Line 2, not as interest income.

Forfeited Interest Penalty
Estates or trusts may use forfeited interest penalty, incurred for premature redemption or withdrawal of a time savings account or certificate of deposit, to offset only the interest income from that account or certificate.

It may not offset other interest income. If the total penalty exceeds the interest on an account or certificate, the excess is a loss on PA-41 Schedule D.

Interest Received by Nonresident Estates or Trusts
Generally, interest received by nonresident estates or trusts is not taxable even when paid by a Pennsylvania bank.

Interest is taxable to a nonresident only if derived from the ownership or disposition of real or personal tangible property in Pennsylvania, or received in connection with doing business in Pennsylvania.

Although the interest income may not be taxable, the information may be necessary in the completion of PA-41 Schedule DD. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

Gambling and Lottery Winnings
Gambling and lottery winnings for resident estates and nonresident estates must be reported on Line 5 of PA-41 Schedule A and on Line 1 of the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Line 2
Dividend and Capital Gains Distributions Income
You must complete PA-41 Schedule B if the amount of dividend and capital gains distribution income reported on the return is greater than $2,500.

If you are required to complete PA-41 Schedule B, please include the amount from Line 6 of PA-41 Schedule B here on Line 2 of the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

If you are not required to complete PA-41 Schedule B, record the total amount of dividend income earned for the year on Line 2. See the PA-41 Schedule B instructions on the department’s website.

Report dividend income received from stocks, non PA S corporations, mutual funds, other business associations, etc. as well as capital gains distributions from mutual funds.

A resident estate or trust that is a shareholder of a corporation, other than a PA S corporation, must report as taxable dividend income distributions by a business corporation or business association out of its earnings and profits, without regard to the manner in which the business derived the income.

For Pennsylvania purposes, a business association is an unincorporated business enterprise, organized in a manner similar to a business corporation. Business corporations or business associations include, but are not limited to, business trusts, federally qualified real estate investment companies, mutual funds, and other federally regulated investment companies.

Important. If the estate or trust is a shareholder in a subchapter S corporation in another state, and that corporation elected not to be treated as a PA S corporation, include the cash or property the estate or trust actually received out of the corporation’s earnings and profits as dividend income on Line 2.

The estate or trust must submit federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1. If the estate or trust received distributions in excess of the corporation’s earnings and profits, report these distributions on PA-41 Schedule D. Do not report the amount of the estate or trust’s distributable income, and do not submit the federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1.

A shareholder may not claim a credit for income tax paid to another state by an S corporation that elected not to be treated as a PA S corporation.
Caution. Report capital gains distributions from mutual funds and regulated investment companies as dividend income for Pennsylvania purposes, even though reported on federal Schedule D for federal purposes.

Mutual Funds, Money Market Funds and Investment Trusts

Distributions, including dividends in the form of capital gains, received from mutual funds and money market funds, real estate investment trusts, and other investment trusts, except for ordinary dividends from exempt Pennsylvania obligations and exempt federal obligations, are fully taxable as dividends unless they are a return of capital.

Dividend Income Does Not Include

- Dividends distributed by a corporation to its stockholders in the form of stock, when the distribution is not taxable as income for federal purposes.
- Distributions designated as a return of capital by a utility company or other corporation. Once such distributions reduce the basis of the stock to zero, further distributions are taxable as gain from the sale or dispositions of property on PA-41 Schedule D.
- Dividends from deposits or withdrawals from accounts paid by savings and loan associations, mutual savings banks, cooperative banks, and credit unions. Report these payments as Pennsylvania-taxable interest income on Line 1.
- Ordinary dividends paid by a mutual fund or a registered investment company that the fund/company statement designates as being exempt-interest dividends. Use the percentage of the total dividend income that is from exempt Pennsylvania and exempt federal obligations.
- Income from an estate or trust, even if reported on a federal Form 1041 Schedule K-1. Report such income on PA-41 Schedule J.
- Dividends from Pennsylvania tax-exempt obligations. You can request REV-1643, Tax-Exempt Obligations for Pennsylvania personal Income tax purposes, for a list of exempt obligations.
- Dividends distributed under a charitable gift annuity are not taxable. However, after you recovered the amount you donated, you must report further distributions as taxable gains on PA-41 Schedule D.

Dividends Received by Nonresident Estates or Trusts

Generally, dividends received by nonresident estates or trusts are not taxable even when paid by a Pennsylvania corporation.

However, the information may be necessary to complete the PA-41 Schedule DD and may be necessary to determine the amount of trust income to be reported by a resident beneficiary. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

Line 3
Net Income or Loss from the Operation of a Business, Profession or Farm

Complete and file a separate PA-40 Schedule C or PA-40 Schedule F for each business or farm that the estate or trust operates.

If the estate or trust is an owner in a partnership, PA S corporation or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a partnership or PA S corporation for federal income tax purposes, submit a copy of the federal Form 1065 or federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1 if a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 is not supplied.

If the estate or trust is an owner in a partnership or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes and receives only a federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1, you must adjust and classify the income and losses according to Pennsylvania rules.

See the Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax Guide (PA PIT), Chapter 16, Pass Through Entities, for additional information on the adjustments required and the proper classification of income.

What is a Business or Profession?

A business or profession has certain features and must meet each of the following conditions:
- markets its products, goods, and services to its customers in a marketplace;
- regularly and continuously conducts its commercial activities; and
- does not limit or restrict its commercial activities to certain related or unrelated customers.

Reporting Net Income (Loss) on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return

If the estate or trust realizes ordinary income (loss) from the operation of a business, profession or farm from more than one partnership, PA S corporation, or entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a partnership or PA S corporation for federal income tax purposes, provide a statement showing the FEIN, name, and amount of distributable/distributed income by entity. Also include the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 and/or federal Form 1065 Schedules K-1 or 1120S Schedules K-1 when filing your PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Record the total amount of income (loss) from partnerships, PA S corporations, and entities formed as limited liability companies that are classified as partnerships or PA S corporations for federal income tax purposes along with any income (loss) from Schedules C or F on Line 3. If the estate or trust realizes a net loss, enter that amount on Line 3 and fill in the oval next to the line. Do not use brackets or a minus sign.

Income Not Derived in the Ordinary Course of Business

Unless the estate or trust realizes the following kinds of income in the ordinary course of operating its business, profession or farm, the estate or trust reports these kinds of income in other Pennsylvania income classes on its PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

The estate or trust may not deduct expenses attributable to these classes of income on its PA Schedules C or F.

Follow these rules for reporting other income:
- Report the gain (loss) from the sale of an asset used in business, other than inventory or stock-in-trade, on PA-41 Schedule D.
- Report interest income on PA-41 Schedule A.
- Report dividend income on PA-41 Schedule B.
- Report rent and royalty income on PA-40 Schedule E.

Allowable Business Expenses

Allowable expenses are those ordinary, necessary, and reasonable expenses currently paid or incurred during the taxable year that are directly related to and necessary for operating a business, profession or farm.

Social security and unemployment compensation taxes paid for employees are allowable expenses.

- Do not deduct any federal income tax, estate, inheritance, legacy, succession and gift taxes, or assessments for any improvements or betterments.
- Do not deduct taxes on dwellings or household property and other taxes not related to the business.

Depreciation/Bonus Depreciation
Pennsylvania personal income tax law does not follow the federal allowances for additional depreciation expenses. Taxpayers may not use either of the bonus depreciation elections enacted for federal purposes in 2002 and 2003. An estate or trust must increase its Pennsylvania income by the difference between the bonus depreciation and the depreciation based on the generally accepted depreciation method it elected for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes.

Other Depreciation Expense Differences
An estate or trust must adjust its federal expense for the difference between its federal depreciation and its Pennsylvania personal income tax depreciation, based on its generally accepted method.

Pennsylvania allows ACRS, MACRS, and IRC Section 168(k) only to the extent allowable under the version of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at the time the property was placed in service or the IRC in effect on Jan. 1, 1997, whichever is earlier, but not any other accelerated method.

Caution. Estates and trusts cannot expense capital property using any provisions of IRC Section 179.

TIP. If the basis of the property used to calculate depreciation for federal income tax purposes is different than that used to calculate depreciation for state income tax purposes, the department requires straight-line depreciation to be used to calculate the depreciation on these assets for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes.

Other Federal Legislation
Federal legislation signed into law late in 2010 – including the Small Business Jobs Act and the Tax Relief, Unemployment Insurance Reauthorization, and Job Creation Act – contained no provisions applicable for or that may be used in calculating Pennsylvania personal income tax liabilities. Any provisions provided in the aforementioned acts to defer income or accelerate deductions must be reversed for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes.

Line 4
Net Gain or Loss from the Sale, Exchange or Disposition of Property
If the estate or trust has net gains or losses from the sale, exchanges, or disposition of property, enter the amount from Line 10 of the PA-41 Schedule D here on Line 4. See the PA-41 Schedule D instructions on the department’s website.

You must report each sale, exchange, or disposition of any kind of property, including real estate, tangible personal property and intangible property such as stock or ownership interests in business enterprises, bonds, annuities, and contract of insurance with refundable accumulated reserves payable upon lapse or surrender.

However, if a sale, including an installment sale, is a routine transaction in the ordinary course of operating a business, profession or farm, include the gain (loss), and any interest realized in determining net business income (loss).

See the Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax (PA PIT), Chapter 12, Table 12-1, for more information on determining whether the sale should be included as a routine transaction in the ordinary course of business or on PA-41 Schedule D.

Report gain on the disposition of property in the taxable year in which the amount realized from the conversion of the property into cash or other property exceeds the adjusted basis of such property.

An estate or trust recognizes a loss only:
- with respect to transactions entered into for profit; and/or
- in the taxable year in which it closes and completes the transaction by some identifiable event that fixes the amount of such loss, so that there is no possibility of any eventual recovery.

Installment Sales
Obtain and complete PA Schedule D-1 (REV-1689). Enter on Line 3 of PA-41 Schedule D the total gain realized from PA Schedule D-1.

The estate or trust must elect the installment method if it receives at least one payment in any taxable year after the taxable year of the sales transaction. The estate or trust must submit PA Schedule D-1.

The estate or trust may not use the installment method for:
- reporting gains from the sale of intangible personal property, such as stocks, bonds, partnership interests, etc.; or
- transactions where the object is the lending of money or the rendering of services.

Once the estate or trust makes the election to report on an installment basis, it may not change its method of reporting in subsequent years.

Follow the instructions for PA Schedule D-1. Submit PA Schedule D-1 with the PA-41 Schedule D.

Important. Interest incidental to an installment sale is reported directly from the sale contract or agreement, on PA Schedule D-1.

Repossession of Property
If an estate or trust repossesses property resulting from an installment sale because the buyer defaulted, the estate or trust must adjust the basis of the recovered property by the amount of any previously reported gain. The estate or trust may not amend its tax return for the taxable year of the original installment sale.

TIP. Report capital gains distributions from mutual funds and regulated investment companies as dividend income for Pennsylvania purposes, even though reported on a federal Schedule D for federal purposes.

Federal and Pennsylvania Obligations
Since 1993, Pennsylvania law treats net gains and losses from the sale, exchange, or disposition of the following obligations differently depending on the original issue date of these obligations:

1. direct obligations of the U.S., such as Series E, F, G, H, I, and EE bonds, federal treasury bills, and treasury notes;
2. direct obligations of certain agencies, instrumentalities, or territories of the U.S.; and
3. direct obligations of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and its political subdivisions.
If the original issue date was before Feb. 1, 1994:
- the net gain is not subject to Pennsylvania tax;
- a loss may not offset other gains; and
- expenses incurred may not reduce other taxable gains.

If the original issue date was on or after Feb. 1, 1994:
- the net gains are Pennsylvania-taxable income; and
- losses may offset other Pennsylvania-taxable gains, but not income in other Pennsylvania income classes.

Important. If the sale, exchange or disposition of property transaction is from a federal or Pennsylvania obligation, please include the original issue date or DTD date of the obligation in the description of the transaction.

Caution. The gain from the sale of a mutual fund or a fixed investment portfolio trust is not exempt for Pennsylvania purposes.

Obligations of Other States
Net gain from the disposition of obligations of other states or countries is always Pennsylvania-taxable income.

Taxable Distributions from a C Corporation
An estate or trust that is a shareholder in a C corporation must report as taxable gain the excess of the fair market value of a distribution (other than a dividend) in excess of current or accumulated earnings and profits over the adjusted basis of its stock when the adjusted basis of the stock is zero.

When a distribution, that is not a dividend, is received that is in excess of the current or accumulated earnings and profits, it decreases the basis of the stock or shares, but not below zero, by any distribution that is not taxable as a dividend on Line 2 of PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. Once a distribution reduces the basis of the stock to zero, the excess distributions are taxable as gains from the disposition of property and reported on Schedule D, Line 4.

Example. B corporation distributes from its capital account $100,000 to the estate of John Doe, the only stockholder. The estate’s adjusted basis in the stock is $75,000. The distribution is not from the regular corporation’s earnings and profits, so it is not a taxable dividend.

The estate must reduce its basis from $75,000 to zero, then report $100,000 on the “Enter total distribution” line, and $75,000 on the “Minus adjusted basis” line. The estate reports the remaining $25,000 as a gain on its PA-41 Schedule D.

Property Acquired Before June 1, 1971

Limited Liability Company, Partnership and PA S Corporation Income
If the estate or trust is a member, partner or shareholder (owner) in a PA S corporation, it should receive a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 or NRK-1 showing its share of any net gain (loss) realized by the sale, exchange or disposition of property.

- Report the amount of any net gain (loss) realized by the sale, exchange or disposition of property from PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1, Line 4 and PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1, Line 2 on PA-41 Schedule D, Line 6 or Line 7.
- Submit all schedules to support the amount reported on PA-41 Schedule D.
- If the estate or trust has net income (loss) from rents, royalties, patents and/or copyrights, it must complete a separate PA-40 Schedule E to report the income (loss) and include it with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Line 5 Net Income or Loss from Rents, Royalties, Patents or Copyrights
If the estate or trust has net income (loss) from rents, royalties, patents and/or copyrights, it must complete a separate PA-40 Schedule E to report the income (loss) and include it with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Disposition of Principal Residence
A sale or other disposition of a decedent’s principal residence will not qualify for the principal residence exclusion unless the disposition is pursuant to an executory contract made prior to death by an individual that met the ownership and use requirements. Include the taxable sale of a decedent’s residence on Line 1 of PA-41 Schedule D.

Important. If the sale, exchange or disposition of a property transaction from a federal or Pennsylvania obligation, please include the original issue date or DTD date of the obligation in the description of the transaction.

Caution. The gain from the sale of a mutual fund or a fixed investment portfolio trust is not exempt for Pennsylvania purposes.

Obligations of Other States
Net gain from the disposition of obligations of other states or countries is always Pennsylvania-taxable income.

Taxable Distributions from a C Corporation
An estate or trust that is a shareholder in a C corporation must report as taxable gain the excess of the fair market value of a distribution (other than a dividend) in excess of current or accumulated earnings and profits over the adjusted basis of its stock when the adjusted basis of the stock is zero.

When a distribution, that is not a dividend, is received that is in excess of the current or accumulated earnings and profits, it decreases the basis of the stock or shares, but not below zero, by any distribution that is not taxable as a dividend on Line 2 of PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. Once a distribution reduces the basis of the stock to zero, the excess distributions are taxable as gains from the disposition of property and reported on Schedule D, Line 4.

Example. B corporation distributes from its capital account $100,000 to the estate of John Doe, the only stockholder. The estate’s adjusted basis in the stock is $75,000. The distribution is not from the regular corporation’s earnings and profits, so it is not a taxable dividend.

The estate must reduce its basis from $75,000 to zero, then report $100,000 on the “Enter total distribution” line, and $75,000 on the “Minus adjusted basis” line. The estate reports the remaining $25,000 as a gain on its PA-41 Schedule D.

Property Acquired Before June 1, 1971

Limited Liability Company, Partnership and PA S Corporation Income
If the estate or trust is a member, partner or shareholder (owner) in a PA S corporation, it should receive a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 or NRK-1 showing its share of any net gain (loss) realized by the sale, exchange or disposition of property.

- Report the amount of any net gain (loss) realized by the sale, exchange or disposition of property from PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1, Line 4 and PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1, Line 2 on PA-41 Schedule D, Line 6 or Line 7.
- Submit all schedules to support the amount reported on PA-41 Schedule D.
- If the estate or trust has net income (loss) from rents, royalties, patents and/or copyrights, it must complete a separate PA-40 Schedule E to report the income (loss) and include it with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Line 5 Net Income or Loss from Rents, Royalties, Patents or Copyrights
If the estate or trust has net income (loss) from rents, royalties, patents and/or copyrights, it must complete a separate PA-40 Schedule E to report the income (loss) and include it with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return.

Instructions for PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return

Submit a copy of the federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1 if a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 is not supplied by the partnership or limited liability company. If the estate or trust receives only federal Form 1065 Schedule K-1, the estate or trust must adjust and classify the income and losses according to Pennsylvania personal income tax. See the Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax (PA PIT) Guide, Chapter 16, Pass Through Entities, for additional information on the adjustments required and the proper classification of income.

If the estate or trust is a shareholder in a PA S corporation or an entity formed as a limited liability company that is classified as a PA S corporation for federal income tax purposes, the PA S corporation must provide the owner the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule RK-1 or NRK-1. The federal Form 1120S Schedule K-1 is not an acceptable substitute.

If the estate or trust realizes income (loss) from more than one partnership, PA S corporation or limited liability company, provide a statement showing the FEIN, name and amount of distributable/distributed income by entity.

Generally, the estate or trust must use PA-40 Schedule E, but may use federal Schedule E if using only Part 1 and making the following adjustments.

- Report passive rental/royalty loss in full, rather than carry it over to future years.
- Report only the current year’s income (loss) by removing any rental/royalty loss carryovers.
- Add any capital gains/distributions.
- Do not take any depreciation expense on sales and use tax that it elected to currently expense for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes.
- (Optional) Deduct sales and use tax on acquired property as an expense currently rather than add it to the basis of the property as required for federal purposes.

Important. If currently expensing sales and use tax, the basis of that property will differ from the federal basis. Adjust the depreciation expense accordingly, because the estate or trust cannot expense sales and use tax and still take depreciation. If not expensing sales and use tax, add such sales and use tax to the cost basis of the property and depreciate the aggregate cost plus sales and use tax. Separately show its share of any rental or royalty gain (loss) realized as a partner or as a shareholder of a PA S corporation or other entity.

Rents and Royalty Receipts and Allowable Expenses

Gross rents and royalties include all items of gross receipts from rents, royalties, patents, copyrights, secret processes, formulas, goodwill, trademarks, trade brands, franchises, and similar property except:
- receipts from the sale, exchange or other disposition of rental, royalty and similar property; and
- receipts from operating an oil, gas or mineral interest as a business, profession or farm or otherwise derived in the ordinary course of, and from the operation of, a business.

Deduct those expenses that were paid or incurred during the taxable year that are ordinary and necessary for:
- the production of, or collection of, rents and royalties; or
- the management, conservation or maintenance of rents, royalties, patents, copyrights and similar property. See the PA-40 Schedule E instructions on the department’s website for the allowable expenses.

Rents or Net Gain from the Sale, Exchange, or Disposition of Property Lease with an Option to Buy

A lease with an option to buy may be a purchase contract under accepted accounting principles and practices. If it is, the payments you received under the contract are payments of the purchase price and are not includable as rental income. Report such income on PA-41 Schedule D.

Selling Mineral Interests, Patents, or Copyrights

If giving up all rights to mineral interests, patents or copyrights, the amounts the estate or trust received are considered payments for the sale or exchange of property. Report such income on PA-41 Schedule D.

Line 6 Estate or Trust Income

If the estate or trust has estate or trust income reported on PA-41 Schedule J, report that income here. Income currently paid, distributable or credited income from another estate or trust is Pennsylvania-taxable income on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return. The estate or trust will receive a PA-41 Schedule RK-1 or NRK-1 from the other estate or trust.

Cash and property received from another estate or trust by gift, bequest, devise or inheritance is not taxable. Pennsylvania-taxable income from other estates or trusts is reported on PA-41 Schedule J.

If the other estate or trust provides a federal Form 1041 Schedule K-1, report the total distributed and distributable income from all categories of income, not taking into account any losses, on PA-41 Schedule J. See the PA-41 Schedule J instructions on the department’s website.

If a resident estate or trust, enter the amount reported from Line 6 of the PA-41 Schedule RK-1 provided by the other estate or trust as your resident
If a nonresident estate or trust, enter the amount reported from Line 4 of the PA-41 Schedule NRK-1 provided by the other estate or trust as your nonresident taxable income on the PA-41 Fiduciary Income Tax Return, Line 6.

Line 7
Total Income
Add all positive amounts on Lines 1 through 6. You cannot offset income (loss) on these lines to calculate Line 7.

Line 8
Deductions for PA Schedule DD
Complete the PA-41 Schedule DD, Distribution Deduction Schedule, to determine the allowable deductions for distribution made to beneficiaries of the estate or trust. See the PA-41 Schedule DD instructions on the department’s website.

Line 9
Net PA-Taxable Income
Subtract Line 8 from Line 7.

Line 10
Total PA Tax Liability
Multiply the amount on Line 9 by 3.07 percent (0.0307). This amount is the Pennsylvania tax before adjustments for payments and credits.

Line 11
2011 Estimated Payments and Credits
Enter the total of:
● any credit carried over from the 2010 PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return;
● all 2011 installment payments of estimated tax; and
● any payment made with a 2011 request for extension of time to file.

Line 12
Nonresident Tax Withheld from PA Schedules NRK-1
Enter the Pennsylvania tax withheld by a partnership, PA S corporation, or limited liability company from Line 6 of a partnership, PA S corporation or limited liability company PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1.

Line 13
Total Credit for Taxes Paid by Pennsylvania Resident Estates or Trusts to Other States or Countries
Pennsylvania resident estates or trusts having income subject to both the Pennsylvania tax and the fiduciary income tax of another state or country may claim a credit for all or a portion of the tax paid to the other state or country.
Submit a photocopy of the tax return, or other evidence, filed in the other state or country with the PA Schedule G-S or G-L.
If a shareholder or partner, the estate or trust must also submit its PA Schedules RK-1.
Your partnership or PA S corporation submits the PA Schedule G-L and other state’s return with its PA-20S/PA-65 Information Return.

Pennsylvania Resident Shareholders in a Subchapter S Corporation that is not also a PA S Corporation
Pennsylvania law does not permit a resident credit if you are a shareholder in a subchapter S corporation if that corporation elected not to be taxed as a PA S corporation.
See the PA Schedules G-S and G-L instructions on the department’s website.

Pennsylvania law does not provide rules that allow an estate or trust to pass through the fiduciary income tax it pays to another state or country on behalf of its beneficiaries.
Therefore, the estate or trust may adjust the income it reports on the PA-41 Schedule RK-1 that it provides to its beneficiaries by the amount of fiduciary income tax that it paid to another state or country on the income it distributes to its beneficiaries.
The estate or trust must submit an explanation for its adjustment and a copy of the other state (country) tax return or other evidence of the tax due to the other jurisdiction.

Line 14
Total Other Credits from PA Schedule OC
Enter the total allowable credits from Line 13, PA Schedule OC. See the PA-40 Schedule OC and the instructions on the department’s website.

Line 15
Pennsylvania Income Tax Withheld
Enter any Pennsylvania income tax withheld from federal Forms W-2 or 1099. Most estates and trusts will not complete this line.
However, Pennsylvania income tax withheld on income in respect of a decedent (not taxable for estate or trust income tax purposes, but includable in the value of an estate for inheritance tax purposes) should be included on this line along with any Pennsylvania income tax withheld in error on estate or trust income.

Line 16
2011 Payments and Credits
Add Lines 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15.

Line 17
Use Tax
Use tax is the counterpart of sales tax and applies to taxable purchases made over the Internet, through toll-free numbers, from mail order catalogs and from out-of-state locations, or any other occasion where sales tax was not charged and collected by the seller. The use tax rate is the same as the sales tax rate: 6 percent state tax, plus an additional 1 percent local tax for items purchased or used in Allegheny County and 2 percent local tax for Philadelphia.
If the estate or trust purchases items or services subject to sales tax for which the seller does not charge and collect sales tax on the invoice or receipt, the estate or trust is responsible for remitting the use tax directly to the PA Department of Revenue.

Examples. Taxable items include antiques, paintings, appliances, books, stationery, computers, exercise equipment, sports equipment, formal clothing, furniture, furnishings, jewelry, luggage, handbags, musical instruments, office equipment, souvenirs, televisions, radios, stereo equipment, video equipment and camera equipment.

Examples. Taxable services include lawn care, pest control, self-storage, building cleaning and maintenance services such as housekeeping services. See the Retailer’s Information Guide (REV-717) for an extensive, though not comprehensive, list of taxable items and services.

This method of reporting and paying use tax may not be used for purchases of motor vehicles, watercraft, boats, ATVs, snowmobiles or cigarettes.

If the estate or trust has receipts or purchase records for items or services subject to use tax, use the worksheet in the next column to calculate the estate or trust’s use tax liability. Estates and trusts are encouraged to review purchase histories made available online by popular Internet sellers and use that information to calculate the tax due.

Note. This worksheet must be used to calculate use tax due on individual purchases over $1,000.

If the estate or trust paid some sales tax on items – for example, sales tax at a lower rate paid to another state or sales tax paid to Pennsylvania but not Philadelphia – the estate or trust may offset its use tax liability by the sales tax already paid using this worksheet.

Important. The department reserves the right to assess additional use tax due if and when it discovers evidence that the total purchase amount reported on the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return is less than the actual purchase amount.

Businesses with Pennsylvania sales tax licenses should report use tax on their sales tax returns.

Penalties and Interest

Estimated Underpayment Interest Penalty

If Line 18, less Line 17, is more than ten percent of Line 10, the estate or trust is liable for an estimated underpayment penalty.

Pennsylvania law requires estimated Pennsylvania personal income tax payments if the estate or trust earned, received, or realized more than $8,000 of Pennsylvania- taxable income.

Pennsylvania law does provide specific exceptions (safe harbors) to this penalty, and the estate or trust can calculate its penalty at the applicable interest rates on REV-1630F, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Fiduciaries.

Important. Request REV-1630F for each tax year for which the estate or trust owes the penalty.

Who Must Sign

Paper Filed Returns

Signature of Fiduciary
The estate or trust has not filed a valid PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return unless it is properly signed.

The fiduciary signing the return verifies by written declaration, under penalties of perjury, that he or she personally has examined the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return and its accompanying schedules and to the best of his or her knowledge, the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return is true, correct and complete.

The estate or trust official responsible for signing the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return must sign it by hand; signature stamps or labels are not acceptable, and include his or her title, date and daytime phone number.

The responsible official must submit all required schedules with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, including the PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 for each beneficiary.

Preparer’s Signature and Name

Alternative signing is for the preparer, not the taxpayer. Pennsylvania follows federal guidelines for signature requirements for the preparer.

If the fiduciary or an employee of the estate or trust completes the PA-40, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, the paid preparer’s name should remain blank. In addition, anyone who prepares the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return but does not charge the

Electronically Filed Returns
An electronic return must be signed by the fiduciary or authorized individual or representative.

An electronic return must also be signed by the paid preparer, if acceptable.

Two signature options are available, as described below.

Filing Form PA-8453

If a taxpayer elects not to use the federal self-select PIN or a return is filed without a federal return, the PA Department of Revenue requires Electronic Return Originators (EROs) and transmitters to retain completed Forms PA-8453 and supporting documents for three years after the due date of the return or the date the return was filed electronically, whichever is later.

EROs and transmitters must make the documents available to the PA Department of Revenue upon request.

Do not mail Form PA-8453 and attachments to the PA Department of Revenue unless requested.

Any taxpayer filing electronically from a home computer must keep the signed Form PA-8453 and supporting documents for three years after the due date of the return or the date the return was filed electronically, whichever is later.

Taxpayers must make the documents available to the PA Department of Revenue upon request. Do not mail Form PA-8453 and attachments to the PA Department of Revenue unless requested.

The responsible official must file all required schedules with the PA-41, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, including the PA-41 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1.

Filing Form PA-8879
The federal self-select PIN option consists of two PINs, one for the taxpayer and one for the practitioner.

In order for the department to accept the federal self-select PIN as a signature, software developers must display a Jurat/Disclosure Statement.

Taxpayers and Electronic Return Originators (EROs) must complete Form PA-8879 when using this method and consenting to electronic funds withdrawals.

The department requires EROs to retain completed Forms PA-8879 for seven years after the due dates of the returns or the dates the returns were filed electronically, whichever is later. These forms are not to be mailed to the department.

Online Services

Revenue e-Services Center at www.revenue.state.pa.us
This is the location for all the department’s electronic filing services. There are many electronic filing and payment options available for both individual and business taxpayers. Visit the website and learn about the services that may be available to you and take advantage of the speed, ease, convenience, and peace of mind these programs provide.

Online Customer Service Center at www.revenue.state.pa.us
If you have Internet access, you can find answers to commonly asked questions by using the department’s Online Customer Service Center. Use the Find an Answer feature to search the database of commonly asked questions. If you do not find your answer in this area, you can submit your question to a customer service representative.

PA Personal Income Tax Guide (PA PIT Guide)
The department’s PA PIT Guide has information that explains Pennsylvania’s income tax, and its differences from federal rules. You can only access the PA PIT Guide at the department’s website. You can open specific chapters of the PA PIT Guide and use the search features of Adobe Acrobat Reader™ to find additional information on PA personal income tax rules. The department offers a link for free download of the Adobe Acrobat Reader™, which is necessary to access the PA PIT Guide.
