GENERAL INFORMATION
PURPOSE
The REV-413 (I) is used by individual taxpayers for determining if they are required to make estimated tax payments, the amount of their estimated tax liability, the amount of their estimated tax payments, and when the estimated tax payments are due. The REV-413 (I) also provides the instructions for the REV-414 (I), Individuals Worksheet for PA Estimated Tax and the PA-40 ES (I), Declaration of Estimated Personal Income Tax.

Estimated tax is the method used to pay tax on income not subject to employer withholding that includes, but is not limited to, the following types of income:

• Wages for domestic services;
• Tips received from customers;
• Wages paid to residents who are seamen engaged in interstate or intercoastal trade when PA income tax is not withheld by the employer;
• Wages paid to PA residents who work in the reciprocal states of Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia or West Virginia when PA income tax is not withheld by the employer;
• Earnings from self-employment or profits made in a trade, profession, business or farming by residents or nonresidents regardless of whether the nonresident is a resident of a reciprocal state or not;
• Gains from the sale, exchange or disposition of property;
• Interest and dividends;
• Rents and royalties;
• Gambling and lottery winnings (except PA Lottery noncash winnings); and
• Income derived from estates and trusts.

FORMS REQUIRED TO MAKE ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENTS
Individual taxpayers required to make estimated tax payments should obtain and complete the REV-414 (I), Individuals Worksheet for PA Estimated Tax and the PA-40 ES (I), Declaration of Estimated Tax. Instructions for both forms are included within this document. The forms may be obtained from the links provided above or by contacting the department’s Forms Ordering Service at 1-800-362-2050. The forms may also be obtained by sending written requests to:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
TAX FORMS SERVICE UNIT
1854 BROOKWOOD ST
HARRISBURG PA 17104-2244

CAUTION: Do not mail estimated tax payments to this address. See the “Payment and Mailing Instructions” included in the Instructions for Completing the PA-40 ES (I), Declaration of Estimated Personal Income Tax for mailing an estimated tax payment to the department.

WHO MUST MAKE ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENTS
The estimated tax rules apply to:

• Resident and part-year resident individuals; and
• Nonresident individuals (or residents of other countries) that expect to have taxable income from sources within Pennsylvania.

Except for farmers as explained later in these instructions, an individual must make PA estimated tax payments if:

1. The individual can reasonably expect to owe at least $246 ($8,000 of income not subject to employer withholding) in tax after subtracting withholding and credits; and
2. The individual can reasonably expect withholdings and credits to be less than the smaller of:

• 90 percent of the tax to be shown on the 2022 personal income tax return; or
• 100 percent of the product of multiplying the net PA taxable income shown on the 2021 PA-40 return by 3.07 percent (0.0307). This calculation can only be used by a taxpayer who a filed full-year PA-40 return in 2021.

To determine the estimated tax liability, see the Instructions for Completing the REV-414 (I), Individuals Worksheet for PA Estimated Tax. Use the PA-40 ES (I), Declaration of Estimated Personal Income Tax, to declare and pay the estimated tax for individual taxpayers.
JOINT DECLARATIONS
A taxpayer and spouse may file a joint return declaration, unless:
1. They are separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance;
2. They have different taxable years;
3. One spouse is liable for child support;
4. One spouse claims one or more credits (other than the Educational Improvement, Opportunity Scholarship or Resource Enhancement and Protection Tax Credits) on PA Schedule OC; or
5. One spouse is otherwise required by the department to file a separate return. See the PA-40 Instruction Booklet for Married, Filing Separately filing status for details on who must file separate returns.

To avoid problems and delays in processing a PA-40, Personal Income Tax Return, a taxpayer and spouse should file tax returns in the same manner as they made their estimated installment payments. If a taxpayer spouse made joint estimated payments, file a joint return. If a taxpayer and spouse made separate estimated payments, please file separate returns claiming the proper amounts on each return. If a taxpayer and spouse are required to file differently or need to file differently from the way they submitted their estimated payments, complete the REV-459B, Consent to Transfer, Adjust or Correct PA Estimated Personal Income Tax Account form, to adjust the estimated accounts.

SAFE HARBOR RULES
For individual taxpayers required to make estimated tax payments, the department will not impose the estimated underpayment penalty when:
1. The total timely estimated tax payments and credits are at least equal to an amount calculated using the current year’s tax rate times the net taxable income on the prior year’s PA-40, Personal Income Tax Return, (NOTE: This exception does not apply if no return was filed in the prior year or the taxpayer was not a full-year resident of Pennsylvania.); or
2. For each installment period, the timely estimated tax payments and credits are at least 90 percent of the actual tax due on the income earned or received for each installment period.

CAUTION: Individuals cannot use the prior year PA-40, Personal Income Tax Return, tax liability as this year’s estimated tax to avoid underpayment penalty unless the tax rate for both tax years is the same and the taxpayer was a full-year resident for the prior tax year.

ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENT AMOUNT
See the Instructions for Completing the REV-414 (I), Individuals Worksheet for PA Estimated Tax, and the Amount of Payment instructions included in the Instructions for Completing the PA-40 ES (I), Declaration of Estimated Personal Income Tax, for determining the amount of an individual's estimated tax payments.

ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENT DUE DATES
Use the Payment Due Dates Table later in these instructions to determine the due date of each installment.

FARMERS
If at least two-thirds of a taxpayer’s gross income for 2022 will be from farming, a taxpayer may do one of the following:
• Pay all of the estimated tax by Jan. 15, 2023; or
• File a 2022 PA tax return by March 1, 2023, and pay the total tax due. In this case, 2022 estimated tax payments are not required.

AMENDING ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENTS
An individual that has a change in income or credits during a tax year may be required to or elect to change or amend the estimated tax liability and subsequent estimated tax payments. To change or amend the estimated tax liability and subsequent estimated tax payments, use the REV-414 (I), Individuals Worksheet for PA Estimated Tax, to recalculate the estimated tax liability. After completing the recalculation, subtract any estimated tax payments already paid or carryover credits from the previous tax year. Use Line 5 of Section II from the REV-414 (I), the Payment Due Dates Table, and the Amount of Payment instructions included in the Instructions for Completing the PA-40 ES (I), Declaration of Estimated Personal Income Tax, to determine the amount of the subsequent estimated tax payments.

PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO PAY ESTIMATED TAXES
In some cases, a taxpayer may owe an interest penalty when an estimated tax payment is not made and/or the amount is underpaid. PA law imposes this penalty on each underpayment for the number of days that it remains unpaid, but not beyond the due date for the tax return. PA law imposes the penalty:
• When the individual did not make the estimated tax payments on time and/or in the required amount.
• Even if the individual has an overpayment on the PA-40, Personal Income Tax Return.

Individuals that have $8,000 or more of income not subject to employer withholding for a tax year in which estimated tax payments are due may be subject to the estimated underpayment penalty. The penalty is due for all estimated tax payment periods in which an estimated tax payment is not made, or is underpaid, and no exceptions are met for the periods.

The penalty is due even if the income for (an) earlier payment period(s) is (are) less than an annualized income amount of $8,000. The penalty is due when the income for a tax year is at least $8,000 and a payment for an earlier period is not included in the estimated tax payment for the period it is known when the income will exceed $8,000 for the tax year. Underpayment penalties will accrue for those periods until such estimated tax payments are received. See the REV-1630, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals, for additional information on how to calculate the estimated underpayment penalty and qualifying for an exception to the underpayment penalty.

NOTE: The department will notify an individual with a preassessment notice if the individual is subject to the estimated underpayment penalty. Individuals can calculate the correct amount of the penalty on the REV-1630, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals, if there is a disagreement with the amount of the penalty included on the notice.

PRIMARY SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER
Enter the nine-digit Social Security number of the taxpayer.

If a joint declaration and estimated tax payment is being filed, enter the nine-digit Social Security number of the spouse.

DAYTIME PHONE NUMBER
Enter the taxpayer’s daytime phone number.

Enter the last name of the primary taxpayer. If filing a joint declaration and estimated tax payment, this is usually the name of the taxpayer that is listed first on the tax return for a Married, Filing Jointly status filed return.

FISCAL YEAR FILERS ONLY
Enter the beginning and ending dates of the fiscal year only when the PA-40 return is not filed on a calendar-year basis.

AMOUNT OF PAYMENT
Enter the amount of the estimated tax payment to be made for the payment due date. For most taxpayers, the following method may be used to determine the amount of each estimated tax payment:

1. If making four estimated tax payments, multiply the amount on Line 35 of the REV-414 (I), Individuals Worksheet for PA Estimated Tax, by 25% and include the result in the “Amount of Payment” space on the PA-40 ES (I), for each of the four estimated tax payment dates.

2. If an individual first becomes aware that estimated tax payments were required to be made after the first estimated tax payment date but before the second estimated tax payment date, multiply the amount on Line 35 of the REV-414 (I) by 50% and enter the result in the “Amount of Payment” space on the PA-40 ES (I) for the second estimated tax payment. For the last two estimated tax payments, multiply the amount on Line 35... of the REV-414 (I) by 25% and enter the result in the "Amount of Payment" space on the PA-40 ES (I).

3. If an individual first becomes aware that estimated tax payments were required to be made after the second estimated tax payment date but before the third estimated tax payment date, multiply the amount on Line 35 of the REV-414 (I) by 75% and enter the result in the "Amount of Payment" space on the PA-40 ES (I) for the third estimated tax payment. For the remaining estimated tax payment, multiply the amount on Line 35 of the REV-414 (I) by 25% and enter the result in the "Amount of Payment" space on the PA-40 ES (I).

4. If an individual first becomes aware that estimated tax payments were required to be made after the third estimated tax payment date but before the final estimated tax payment date, multiply the amount on Line 35 of the REV-414 (I) in the “Amount of Payment” space on the PA-40 ES (I).

Taxpayers that receive their income unequally throughout the tax year may also pay their estimated tax payments based upon the amount of income received during an estimated tax payment period. To determine the amount of the estimated tax payment using this method:

A. Separately calculate the income received within an estimated tax payment period using the estimated tax payment period as provided in either the first column of the Payment Due Dates Table.

B. Multiply the income amount received by 90%.

C. Multiply the result from Step B by 3.07% (0.0307).

D. Enter the result from Step C in the "Amount of Payment" space on the PA-40 ES (I).

E. Repeat Steps A through D for each estimated tax payment period.

NOTE: A taxpayer may also elect to pay the entire amount of the estimated tax from Line 35 on the first estimated tax payment due date.

Typically, the amount is based upon Line 35 of the REV-414 (I) divided by four unless a carryover credit amount was applied from the previous tax year or a make-up payment for (a) previous estimated tax payment period(s) must be made.

If a carryover credit exists from the previous tax year, the amount is considered to be applied to the first estimated tax payment amount and period regardless of when the previous tax year’s return is filed and/or processed by the department. Any amounts in excess of the required estimated tax payment for the first estimated payment period are considered to be carried to the subsequent payment period(s) until the carryover amount is completely applied against the amount required for subsequent payment periods. If any carryover amount is less than the required amount for a payment period, the payment amount to be made for the payment period should be the difference between the estimated tax payment amount and the remaining carryover amount.
